The Punishment Of My Gambling Establishment Of Sin

"I hate this place, My son. Gambling has got to go. The time will come when money will be scarce, then what will people do? They cannot gamble for Me; that is wicked sin that burns to Hell. All of these wicked places will be destroyed- I will make sure if it, says the Living God. Then where will people go when they come to Vegas? Gambling establishments are a wicked sin. My foolish and stupid people waste their money there. I will make sure that they are punished for their wicked sin. Gambling establishments have got to go. Do not seek money there. My Great Depression and famine will take care of that! Their wicked sins mount into the heavens: they are endless. My people must repent, otherwise they will go to Hell for wasting their money on sin. It will not be multiplied; few will win. The gambling establishments has that figured out. My people are covetous and they will be punished for their sin of covetousness. My wrath burns forever! Depart this place! I will punish it in due time. Vegas has got to go. Great will be her destruction. They will not obey; they continually want more. The sin of covetousness will be punished in your lifetime. Depart this place. My anger burns forever against it and all sinners of sin. Depart now. Leave. Your LORD has spoken, My son. Amen."
